this book is a meta analysis of the relationship of margin and mission of faith based hospitals in allegheny county pennsylvania to their beginnings and endings it reviews the various local state and federal events and factors that impacted these hospitals during their growth and decline from 1847 through 2008 most importantly the book shares the courage hardships and perseverance of the founders of these institutions many of whom were women as they responded to one crisis after another but never gave up their commitment to serve the poor and sick of pittsburgh and allegheny county in american catholic hospitals barbra mann wall chronicles changes in catholic hospitals during the twentieth century many of which are emblematic of trends in the american healthcare system wall explores the church s struggle to safeguard its religious values as hospital leaders reacted to increased political economic and societal secularization they extended their religious principles in the areas of universal health care and adherence to the ethical and religious values in catholic hospitals leading to tensions between the church government and society the book also examines the power of women as administrators catholic sisters wielded significant authority as well as the gender disparity in these institutions which came to be run for the most part by men wall also situates these critical transformations within the context of the changing church policy during the 1960s she undertakes unprecedented analyses of the gendered politics of post second vatican council catholic hospitals as well as the effect of social movements on the practice of medicine can the ethical mission of health care survive among organizations competing for survival in the marketplace this book presents both an analytic framework and a menu of pragmatic answers murdertown bombtown crimetown through decades the city of youngstown ohio has been branded with such painful nicknames due in large part to the rackets violence and corruption of organized crime in the region the streets of youngstown and other communities in the mahoning and shenango valleys of northeastern ohio and western pennsylvania have been bloodied through numerous shootings and stabbings and during an especially disturbing period a series of gruesome car bombings in too many cases public officials and officers of the law were complicit in the criminal activity profiting through bribery and graft some authorities who resisted corruption and attempted to perform their public duties found themselves the targets of underworld violence in this november 2022 issue of informer the history of american crime and law enforcement we tackle the history of organized crime in youngstown region from the earliest reports of the 1890s through the apparent dissolution of the mob presence more than a century later it is a complex subject as elements of at least four regional mafia organizations and a persistent non mafia calabrian organization in addition to other criminal elements all collided cooperated combined and clashed with each other at different times this resulted in a wealth of interesting but often uncoordinated stories and personalities our strategy for dealing with the subject is to present a number of individual standalone articles on the more interesting of these stories bringing to light the significant personalities groups areas and eras the effort might be compared to the photographic stitching of a collection of images into a panorama readers will discover the secret criminal organizations behind names like society of honor sacred circle and society of the banana and will encounter such characters as fats aiello ernie biondillo frank cammarata cadillac charlie cavallaro joe cutrone tony dope delsanter vince deniro wolf dicarlo big jim falcone mike farah red giordano big dom mallamo dominick moio two gun
